Counter-Terrorism and Criminological Expert to Speak at the Correctional Security Training Conference in Cincinnati

Cincinnati, OH, September 25, 2006 - Dr. Lionel C.M. von Frederick Rawlins, an international expert in Corporate and Maritime Espionage, Counter-Terrorism, and Criminogenics, and principle of The VonFrederick Group, will speak at the Correctional Security Training Conference at the Millennium Hotel in Cincinnati, OH, on Monday, September 25, 2006, at 3:00 pm. His speaking points will cover:

- Al-Qaeda's recruitment, conversion, and radicalization of America's hard-core prisoners, to mobilize in their asymmetrical religious war upon their release
- Recruitment patterns and trends that transcend regional dynamics
- Proactive risk analysis to counter terrorists' ability to replenish and increase their numbers
- Challenges, preparedness and response.

Doctor Lionel C. M. von Frederick Rawlins is the President and CEO of The VonFrederick Group, a Sacramento, California, based counter-terrorism and criminological corporation. Dr. Rawlins' unique synthesis of expertise in criminogenics and the asymmetrical war on terror put him in great demand as an international lecturer, commentator, criminologist, and counter-terrorist. He co-authored the book, The Anatomy of Genocide: State Sponsored Killings in The 21st Century as well as many other published articles on genocide, satanic cults, gangs, criminology, and terrorism.

Dr. Rawlins will be available in Cincinnati, OH, on Monday, September 25, 2006, to speak with the media. This conference is put on by the Correctional Security Network.
